

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate is a publication that rates wines from around the world. With no advertising or sponsors, the Advocate publishes its ratings in a bi-monthly journal focusing on a few different regions each issue. Reviews for the Australian wines are written by one of Parker's tasting associates, Dr Jay Miller.

The Value Issue, August 2008 REVIEW

Shottesbrooke 2006 Shiraz

RATING – 92 POINTS

The 2006 Shiraz spent 12 months in American oak hogsheads. It is dark ruby-colored with an alluring, slightly kinky perfume of wood smoke, spice box, leather, game, and blueberry. On the palate it is smooth-textured, full-bodied, and plush, with layers of savory flavors. It has enough structure to evolve for 3-4 years and will be at its best from 2012 to 2020.

RRP AUD$ 19.95
