GOLD Shottesbrooke PUNCH Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 2007 Vintage Cellars National Wine Show

Nearly 1300 wines from over 200 Australian and New Zealand wineries were entered in the 2007 Vintage Cellars National Wine Show. The Shottesbrooke Punch Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 was among only 3 wines to be awarded gold in Class 24, 2005 Dry Red - Cabernet Sauvignon.

The judging panel of for this class, Ian McKenzie, Lester Jesberg and Travis Fuller, commented that it was a strong class of generally well made wines...

Shottesbrooke winemaker, Hamish Maguire, commented, "It is fantastic to receive another great result for our benchmark Cabernet Sauvignon, 'Punch'. This and other awards, further adds to the pedigree and class of this classic McLaren Vale variety."

Punch is named after a hard working Clydesdale horse who worked the Shottesbrooke land, now planted to our vineyards, until the late 1940's.
