BACKGROUND

First planted by founder, Nick Holmes, over 30 years ago, Shottesbrooke is proudly an estate grown and managed boutique winery.

In the year 1337, one of the great knights of England, Sir William de Trussell, commissioned the construction of the Shottesbrooke church. Famous for his indulgent lifestyle, he sought to appease his critics with this generous contribution to the parish. Centuries later, from 1905 to 1926, Nick's grandfather was vicar of this very church. As a toast to this rich heritage, it is this beautiful building from which our winery takes its name.

Vineyards & Winemaking

Sourced from the premium wine growing region of McLaren Vale, the parcels of fruit used for this wine were fermented on skins to impart colour and build complexity, before being pressed and matured in a combination of older French and American oak barrels.

Sourced from a hand-selected collection of premium vineyards, this wine is voluptuous and plush, becoming wonderfully developed and ever more elegant with some careful cellaring and a little age.
