BACKGROUND

First planted by founder, Nick Holmes, over 30 years ago, Shottesbrooke is proudly an estate grown and managed winery.

In the year 1337, one of the great knights of England, Sir William de Trussell, commissioned the construction of the Shottesbrooke church. Famous for his indulgent lifestyle, he sought to appease his critics with this generous contribution to the parish. Centuries later, from 1905 to 1926, Nick's grandfather was vicar of this very church. As a toast to this rich heritage, it is this beautiful building from which our winery takes its name.

Vineyards & Winemaking

'Blanc de Blanc' is a French term meaning "whitest of whites" and is commonly used to describe a sparkling wine made from 100% Chardonnay grapes, rather than the more traditional Chardonnay and Pinot blends.

Sourced from a selection of premium vineyards in the Adelaide Hills, this wine is restrained and elegant whilst young, yet becomes wonderfully developed and mouthfilling with age.

"The mousse is quite foamy initially. There is a lovely clean, fresh nose. The palate is light and fresh, with fresh lemon-like acidity. I like the mouth-feel, even if there is not great depth to the fruit. The finish feels quite dry, making for a good value summer's afternoon drink. Must be applauded for using a crown seal (beer cap) closure." - Barry Weinmann

"Citrusy aromas and flavors of lemon curd, peach skin, nougat, and boney cream on apple with a supple, vibrant, finely carbonated, fruity medium-to-full body and a polished, interesting, medium-long finish with accents of apricot, lime, and raisin toast with fine, fruit tannins and no oak flavor. A vibrant blanc de blanc shimmering with ripe fruit and mouthwatering acidity." - Tastings.com
